

Air Hydro Power acquires Alabama Bolt and Supply

Louisville, KY– Air Hydro Power Inc. (AHP) located in Louisville, Kentucky has acquired Alabama Bolt and Supply Incorporated of Montgomery, Alabama effective July 1, 2018.

Alabama Bolt and Supply brings over 40 years of experience supporting customers throughout central and southern Alabama. Their areas of expertise include hydraulics, pneumatics, hose and fittings and industrial fasteners. They are currently a full line Parker distributor representing Parker Fluid Connectors, and have two Parker Store locations: Montgomery and Tuscaloosa, Alabama. With the addition of Air Hydro Power's product lines, Alabama Bolt and Supply will have complete Automation, Hydraulic, Pneumatic and Hose and Fitting offerings, along with industrial fasteners.

Charlie Ferguson, current President of Alabama Bolt and Supply commented: "This is a great step forward for providing more products and services to our hundreds of customers. It also is great for our employees to become part of a company like Air Hydro Power that is so employee focused."

Matt Ott, Co-Owner of Air Hydro Power commented that "It is our goal to aggressively grow in this region and develop the Alabama Bolt and Supply team and integrate the AHP sales support team fully in this growth area of Alabama".

This is the third acquisition Air Hydro Power has made in Alabama in the last 20 months: Total Hose, Powermotion and now Alabama Bolt and Supply. AHP recognized the similarities between the Kentucky and Alabama customer base and was asked by a key vendor to move into the Alabama market in late 2009. AHP now has over 50 employees in Alabama with Parker Store locations in Birmingham, Decatur, Huntsville, Tuscaloosa and Montgomery, Alabama.
